At Pocono Downs ...

Dutch Hill Chief is special

Dutch Hill Chief has only gotten to the races six times in the last two years. Twice in 1980 and four times this year. However, that one win, a 2001 romp at Pocono Downs, was enough to mark this 4-year-old son of Nardine Byrd something special.

Enough to cause speculation as to just how good the pacer might be if he were sound. If you only get to the races six times in two years, you are ailing somewhat.

Owned by William Mullin and Fred Renz of Bloomsburg, Dutch Hill Chief need one more time after that superb mile at Pocono. He shipped to the Meadowlands and paced 1:58.4, losing by only two lengths. That was on June 3.

Since then, Dutch Hill Chief has been laid up.

He qualified for his return with a 2:06.7 finish. He raced Thursday night in the ninth - the featured pace - a conditioned event, but didn't finish in the money.
